Continuing Education Event—"Sabbath-Keeping as a Practice of Discernment"

Erdman Hall

10:45 a.m. (Monday) to 3:00 p.m. (Tuesday)

The yearning for sabbath is growing in our contemporary world and yet the actual practice of sabbath by well-intentioned and able people is disappearing. How can we respond, with heart, mind, body, and soul?

This event offers clergy, educators, and laity an introduction to an active practice of sabbath-keeping that is, at root, communal and countercultural. In plenary, small-group, and workshop sessions, participants will gain a new perspective on sabbath-keeping as a practice of discernment with one's peers—clergy, educators, or laypersons—and will develop concrete strategies with which to enter into the practice of sabbath-keeping after the event.

Lisa Maguire Hess, an ordained Presbyterian minister and program director for pastoral and congregational renewal, and B.J. Katen-Narvell, an ordained elder at Nassau Presbyterian Church in Princeton, and coordinator for congregational nurture of the Sabbath Renewal Project, will lead this event.

PTS students, staff, and faculty, and their spouses are invited to attend Continuing Education events, but advanced registration is required. Most events are free of charge, but some restrictions do apply. Please contact Continuing Education for more information.

"Eschatology and Scientific Cosmology: From Conflict to Interaction"

Center of Theological Inquiry 8:00 p.m.
50 Stockton Street, Princeton

Robert J. Russell, founder and director of the Center for Theology and the Natural Sciences, and professor of theology and science in residence at the Graduate Theological Union in Berkeley, California, will give a lecture titled "Eschatology and Scientific Cosmology: From Conflict to Interaction" at the Center of Theological Inquiry.

Russell is a physicist, a theologian, and an ordained minister in the United Church of Christ. He is a leading researcher and spokesperson for the growing international body of theologians and scientists committed to a positive dialogue and creative mutual interaction between these fields.

◆ Friday, January 30

Continuing Education Event—"Envisioning the Congregation"

Erdman Hall 9:30 a.m.–3:30 p.m.

Renowned authority on American organizations Peter Drucker claims that most nonprofit groups cannot answer two questions: "What business are you in?" and "How is business?"

To help pastors and lay leaders identify their "business," this seminar will offer a fresh appraisal of a normative, congregation-based ecclesiology. Five practices that are biblically mandated and theologically informed will be addressed: liturgia (worship), koinonia (hospitality), diaconia (advocating), didache (discipling), and marturia (witnessing). These classical Christian practices, expected of clergy and laity alike, can embody the Christian gospel and can also clarify a congregation's mission, lifestyle, and agenda.

John W. Stewart, the Ralph B. and Helen S. Ashenfelter Associate Professor of Ministry and Evangelism, will lead this event.

PTS students, staff, and faculty, and their spouses are invited to attend Continuing Education events, but advanced registration is required. Most events are free of charge, but some restrictions do apply. Please contact Continuing Education for more information.

◆ Monday, February 2 and Tuesday, February 3

Continuing Education Event—"Contemporary Faith Communities: Facing the Challenge of Conflict and Diversity"

Erdman Hall

10:45 a.m. (Monday) to 3:00 p.m. (Tuesday)

Session one explores the newly emerging context of pastoral ministry, the limits of traditional approaches in a changing cultural context, and the negative consequences when pastors and congregations resist change and growth.

Session two offers essential areas of growth for the contemporary religious leader and characteristics to strive for in an open, viable, and healthy 21st-century faith community.

Peter J. Bridge, clinical director of the Samaritan Counseling Center of Southeastern Pennsylvania, will lead this event.

PTS students, staff, and faculty, and their spouses are invited to attend Continuing Education events, but

Continuing Education Event—"Must Everything Be Sacred?"

Erdman Hall 9:30 a.m.–3:30 p.m.

We often complain that our congregations are insufferably serious and insufficiently playful, but we rarely ask why this is, much less do anything about it. This seminar will focus on the ways that humor can lighten the burdensomeness of congregational life and, in turn, reduce the heaviness of the pastor's daily routine. Topics will include the value of humor in saving the expenditure of painful emotions, costly inhibitions, and strenuous thinking; whether laughter is the best medicine; the relationship between funny and offensive; minister-priest-rabbi jokes as examples of reframing; bartender jokes as models of community-building and pastoral care; and intentional and unintentional humor in the Bible.

Donald E. Capps, the William Harte Felmeth Professor of Pastoral Theology, will lead this event.

PTS students, staff, and faculty, and their spouses are invited to attend Continuing Education events, but advanced registration is required. Most events are free of charge, but some restrictions do apply. Please contact Continuing Education for more information.

◆ Class Steward Workshop

On Friday, February 6 and Saturday, February 7 alumni/ae representatives from the graduating classes of the last fifty years will be on campus for a fundraising workshop. These class stewards work with their classmates to generate gifts to the annual Alumni/ae Roll Call. All Roll Call gifts are designated for student scholarship aid. Alumni/ae helping students is a Princeton tradition. The workshop is designed to inform the stewards about the Seminary today and to involve them firsthand with the life of the campus. Many of these alumni/ae are returning to Princeton for the first time since graduation. They are committed to the Roll Call because they want to assist today's students. They would welcome the opportunity to get to know current students on an individual basis. Please extend a gracious welcome to them.

"What We Can't Not Know: The Fall and Rise of Natural Law"

University of Pennsylvania 7:00 p.m.
Law School, 3400 Chestnut Street (enter on Sansom Street), Levy Conference Center, Room 240A, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

We are passing through an eerie phase of history in which the things that everyone really knows are treated as unheard-of doctrines, a time in which the elements of basic right and wrong are considered wrong. Nothing quite like this has ever happened before. What's it all about? Come and find out.

The University of Pennsylvania Law School Christian Legal Society invites the PTS community to attend "What We Can't Not Know: The Fall and Rise of Natural Law," presented by J. Budziszewski, professor of philosophy and government at the University of Texas in Austin, Texas.

Budziszewski specializes in the relations among ethical theory, political theory, and Christian theology. The focus of his current research is natural law and moral self-deception. His books include The Resurrection of Nature: Political Theory and the Human Character (Cornell, 1986), The Nearest Coast of Darkness: A Vindication of the Politics of Virtues (Cornell, 1988), True Tolerance: Liberalism and the Necessity of Judgment (Transaction, 1992), Written on the Heart: The Case for Natural Law (InterVarsity, 1997), The Revenge of Conscience: Politics and the Fall of Man (Spence, 1999), and What We Can't Not Know: A Guide (Spence, 2003).

A Working Conference on "Civic Education and Engagement: Toward a Political Science of Citizenship"

Princeton University

How do public policies and political institutions other than those directly concerned with formal education and schooling influence patterns of civic engagement and the capacities of citizens to act in politics and civic life? How successfully does political science help us understand the ways in which policy choices and the design of institutions either encourage or discourage desirable forms of citizen activity and civic capacity?

Princeton University's Center for Human Values invites the PTS community to a working conference of the American Political Science Association's Standing Committee on Civic Education and Engagement.

For a conference schedule and more information on the conference and the committee's draft report, visit the University Center for Human Values web site at www.princeton.edu/values.

Seminars in Ethics and Public Affairs

Princeton University 4:30 p.m.
Kerstetter Room

Princeton University's Center for Human Values invites the PTS community to a seminar given by Nancy Rosenblum, the Senator Joseph Clark Professor of Ethics in Politics and Government at Harvard University.

Rosenblum's field of research is political theory, both the historical and contemporary political thought. She is the author of Membership and Morals: The Personal Uses of Pluralism in America (1998), which was awarded the APSA David Easton Prize in 2000.

Her recent edited works including Breaking the Cycles of Hatred: Memory, Law, and Repair with Martha Minow (2002), Obligations of Citizenship and Demands of Faith: Religious Accommodation in Pluralist Democracies (2000), and Civil Society and Government, coedited with Robert Post.

Rosenblum is working on two long-term projects: Primus Inter Pares, a study of the political theory of political parties, and The Quality of Life, a study of Henry David Thoreau.

For more information, call 258-4798, email values@princeton.edu, or visit their web site at www.princeton.edu/values.

◆ Thursday, February 19

Alexander Thompson Lecture—"Scriptural Authority in the Acts of the Apostles"

Main Lounge 7:00 p.m.

The Reverend Canon Professor Loveday Alexander, this year's Thompson Lecturer, is professor of biblical studies at The University of Sheffield in Sheffield, England, and canon-theologian at Chester Cathedral. Alexander, a senior lecturer, came to biblical studies via a degree in classics, philosophy, and ancient history at the University of Oxford. In her teaching and research work she is exploring the links between the New Testament and the Greco-Roman world. She edited Images of Empire and has published The Preface to Luke's Gospel.

Alexander is currently working on a series of readings of Acts through the eyes (and/or ears) of the first-century reader. She is a former chair of the Social World Seminar of the British New Testament Conference, and served for five years as secretary of the conference. She also serves on the editorial boards of the Journal of Biblical Literature, the Journal for the Study of the New Testament, and New Testament Studies.

◆ Thursday, March 4 to Saturday, Saturday March 6

Continuing Education Event—Twelfth Women in Church and Ministry Conference—"Inheriting the Promise: And Then... Sin, Creativity, and the Christian Life"

Erdman Hall
Thursday (4:00 p.m.) to Saturday (12:00 p.m.)

Historic and popular traditions about Adam and Eve often force women in Christian ministry to confront implicit assumptions about sin as they minister. This year's Women in Church and Ministry Conference explores contemporary understandings of sin, alongside creativity and discipleship in the Christian life. How are we called into Christian service even as we have inherited a traditional doctrine of total depravity? How does "sin" affect creative living in Christian communities? What gifts does discipleship offer a life creatively lived? Conference participants will share in times of worship, plenary presentations, and small-group discussions in which Christian community envisions new ways of serving faithfully, while living creatively.

Serene Jones, associate professor of theology at Yale University Divinity School and an ordained minister in both the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) and the United Church of Christ, Cynthia

Rigby, the W.C. Brown Associate Professor of Theology at Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary, and Lisa Maguire Hess, an ordained Presbyterian minister and the program director for pastoral and congregational renewal at the Center of Continuing Education at PTS, will lead this event.

◆ Facilities Announcement

West Windsor Campus Maintenance Calls

The West Windsor campus is now part of the Facilities Office centralized computer network to process maintenance work orders more efficiently. Residents of the West Windsor campus should now call the main campus number (497-7778) for all maintenance calls during normal working hours (8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.), Monday through Friday. The Facilities Office staff will log and process all calls for the West Windsor campus maintenance and custodial staff. You may also call this number after hours to leave a nonemergency maintenance request.

Be sure to give your name, address, telephone number, and maintenance request. A copy of your work order will be emailed to you. If you need to call regarding your maintenance request, please refer to the work order number when speaking to office staff.

As always, if you have an after-hours, holiday, or weekend emergency (e.g. a burst pipe, no heat, locked out of your apartment, etc.), please continue to call the security base station at 497-7777. They will dispatch your call to security.

This Week's ❖ Events

◆ Monday, February 23
Continuing Education Event—"Calvin as Pastor"

Erdman Hall 9:30 a.m.–3:30 p.m.

This seminar will focus on an interactive acquaintance with Calvin as pastor, including sharing in worship through parts of his liturgy and a visual presentation of his parish world. Lectures will provide background and context for understanding Calvin's thought, goals, and practice of the ministry of Word and Sacrament as a collegial pastoral office.

Elsie Anne McKee, PTS's Archibald Alexander Professor of Reformation Studies and the History of Worship, will lead this event.

PTS students, staff, and faculty, and their spouses are invited to attend Continuing Education events, but advanced registration is required. Most events are free of charge, but some restrictions do apply. Please contact Continuing Education for more information.

Contact: Center of Continuing Education
Phone: 497-7990

◆ Monday, February 23
Alexander Thompson Lecture—"Scriptural Authority in the Acts of the Apostles"

Main Lounge 7:00 p.m.

The Reverend Canon Professor Loveday Alexander, this year's Thompson Lecturer, is professor of biblical studies at The University of Sheffield in Sheffield, England, and canon-theologian at Chester Cathedral. Alexander, a senior lecturer, came to biblical studies via a degree in classics, philosophy, and ancient history at the University of Oxford. In her teaching and research work she is exploring the links between the New Testament and the Greco-Roman world. She edited Images of Empire and has published The Preface to Luke's Gospel.

Alexander is currently working on a series of readings of Acts through the eyes (and/or ears) of the first-century reader. She is a former chair of the Social World Seminar of the British New Testament Conference, and served for five years as secretary of the conference. She also serves on the editorial boards of the Journal of Biblical Literature, the Journal for the Study of the New Testament, and New Testament Studies.

◆ Tuesday, February 24 and Wednesday, February 25
Seminars—"Four: Four Decisions That Can Make Your Destiny" and "Messy Spirituality: Making Sense of the Mess"

Miller Chapel 7:30 p.m. (Tuesday)
Main Lounge 12:30 p.m. (Wednesday)

The Asian Association at PTS and the Asian American Program invite the PTS community on Tuesday, February 24, and Wednesday, February 25 to hear renowned pastor and activist David Gibbons of NewSong Church of Irvine and Los Angeles, California. Gibbons has a passionate commitment to come alongside the poorest of the poor, locally and globally, to build a community that reflects the diversity of God's creativity, and to seek to equip and transform individuals to participate fully in God's plans. Come join as he engages us on these issues. A reception will follow the seminar on Tuesday, February 24 in the Private Dining Room.

On Wednesday, February 25, Gibbons will share his personal reflections on life and ministry. Please feel free to bring a bag lunch.

Phone: 977-0757

◆ Friday, February 27
Continuing Education Event—"Steal Away to Jesus: A Lenten Retreat Day"
Erdman Hall 9:30 a.m.–3:30 p.m.
In a day of quiet retreat, participants will center on solitude and detachment from the world as preparation for community and service. Interactive presentations and scripture meditations will assist periods of guided prayer, silence, and journal writing. The leader will draw on films and on spiritual insights from Thomas Merton, Howard Thurman, and Zora Neale Hurston, and will explore methods for deepening devotional life during Lent.
Kent Ira Groff, director of Oasis Ministries for Spiritual Development in Camp Hill, Pennsylvania, will lead this event.
PTS students, staff, and faculty, and their spouses are invited to attend Continuing Education events, but advanced registration is required. Most events are free of charge, but some restrictions do apply. Please contact Continuing Education for more information.

◆ Tuesday, March 2
Documentary Film—Questioning Faith, Searching for Meaning When Nothing Makes Sense
Mackay Auditorium 7:00 p.m.
Questioning Faith, a Cinemax feature documentary film by award-winning director Macky Alston, will be presented in the Mackay Auditorium. Alston will be on campus for the screening and will be introduced by Professor Patrick Miller. In this film, Alston turns his camera on religion in the new millennium, pursuing Buddhists, born-again Christians, atheists, and Orthodox Jews to discover how people find meaning in life when nothing makes sense.
In Questioning Faith, Alston delves into the issue of faith struggle, interviewing those who have suffered family-member suicides and murders, cancer and AIDS patients, a Dachau survivor, and others wrestling with faith in the face of tragedy and hardship. This is an engaging film that prepares people for crises in their lives; provides a tool for conversation around crisis and faith in a nonpartial, nonproselytizing forum; and inspires a sense of respect for people with a range of religious views as they try to understand their lives.
The Seminary community is invited to attend this screening, which is being presented at no charge.

◆ Thursday, March 4 to Saturday, Saturday March 6
Continuing Education Event—Twelfth Women in Church and Ministry Conference—"Inheriting the Promise: And Then... Sin, Creativity, and the Christian Life"
Erdman Hall
Thursday (4:00 p.m.) to Saturday (12:00 p.m.)
Historic and popular traditions about Adam and Eve often force women in Christian ministry to confront implicit assumptions about sin as they minister. This year's Women in Church and Ministry Conference explores contemporary understandings of sin, alongside creativity and discipleship in the Christian life. How are we called into Christian service even as we have inherited a traditional doctrine of total depravity? How does "sin" affect creative living in Christian communities? What gifts does discipleship offer a life creatively lived? Conference participants will share in times of worship, plenary presentations, and small-group discussions in which Christian community envisions new ways of serving faithfully, while living creatively.
Serene Jones, associate professor of theology at Yale University Divinity School and an ordained minister in both the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) and the United Church of Christ; Cynthia Rigby, the W.C. Brown Associate Professor of Theology at Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary; and Lisa Maguire Hess, an ordained

A Concert of Organ Music from North Germany and the Netherlands

Miller Chapel 8:00 p.m.

The Joe R. Engle Organ of Miller Chapel will play just about any repertoire, yet it has a certain bent toward the compositions of North Germany and the Netherlands. Peter Westerbrink will demonstrate this particular facet of the organ by featuring the music of Buxtehude, Bach, and Bolt, among others. The audience will also be invited to sing a chorale with the organ.

Westerbrink is organist for the city of Groningen and the Reformed Church of Noordbroek in the Netherlands. In addition to being acknowledged as one of the preeminent Dutch organists, he is also known in his homeland as a producer of organ and church music programs for Dutch public radio.

The concert is free of charge. Come to sing and enjoy! For more information, contact the Chapel Office at the number below.

◆ Saturday, March 6

Retreat on Marriage and Ministry for Couples and Singles

Main Lounge 8:45 a.m.–1:15 p.m.

Couples (or halves of couples) and single students who may not be "coupled" currently but want to be more prepared for the possible challenges and joys of marriage/partnership and ministry, are invited to attend this retreat on marriage and ministry.

Leaders Kim Guiser and Asha George-Guiser, who are a clergy couple, will talk about "Ten Learnings from Twenty Years of Marriage and Ministry." Kim is a parish pastor and Asha is a licensed marriage and family therapist who served as assistant to the bishop of the Southeastern Pennsylvania Lutheran Synod and was responsible for the formation and placement of seminarians. They are both dynamic speakers and will candidly share the ten most important learnings of their twenty years together balancing marriage, ministry, and parenting.

The schedule is as follows: 8:45 a.m. coffee and registration; 9:00 a.m. prompt start; 11:30 a.m. bagels and fruit break; 1:15 p.m. closure. Childcare will be available at Nassau Presbyterian Church for children who are preregistered.

To sign up, contact Teresa Heyer in the Chapel Office by Monday, March 1. There is a $5 per person fee and a minimal fee for babysitting (cash or checks made payable to PTS). Financial aid is available. Preregistration is required for childcare. Call Teresa if you have any questions.

◆ Facilities Announcement

West Windsor Campus Maintenance Calls

The West Windsor campus is now part of the Facilities Office centralized computer network to process maintenance work orders more efficiently. Residents of the West Windsor campus should now call the main campus number (497-7778) for all maintenance calls during normal working hours (8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.), Monday through Friday. The Facilities Office staff will log and process all calls for the West Windsor campus maintenance and custodial staff. You may also call this number after hours to leave a nonemergency maintenance request.

Be sure to give your name, address, telephone number, and maintenance request. A copy of your work order will be emailed to you. If you need to call regarding your maintenance request, please refer to the work order number when speaking to office staff.

As always, if you have an after-hours, holiday, or weekend emergency (e.g. a burst pipe, no heat, locked out of your apartment, etc.), please continue to call the security base station at 497-7777. They will dispatch your call to security.

Continuing Education Event—"Cultivating Faithful Missional Congregations"

Erdman Hall

Monday (10:45 a.m.) to Tuesday (3:00 p.m.)

There is much talk and concern about the missional challenges confronting the church both in North America and South Africa. In both cultural settings, churches are dealing with massive changes in their societies and are struggling to discover how to be faithful to their calling to participate in God's mission. This course will investigate the practical cultivation of faithful missional congregations in two contexts, building on a strong emerging consensus about the missional theology of the church. The comparison of two cultures will assist us as we focus on the practical translation of this theological vision into our congregational realities.

Darrell L. Guder, PTS's Henry Winters Luce Professor of Missional and Ecumenical Theology, and Malan Nel, director of the Centre for Contextual Ministry, Faculty of Theology, at the University of Pretoria in South Africa, will lead this event.

PTS students, staff, and faculty, and their spouses are invited to attend Continuing Education events, but advanced registration is required. Most events are free of charge, but some restrictions do apply. Please contact Continuing Education for more information.

Documentary Film—Questioning Faith, Searching for Meaning When Nothing Makes Sense

Mackay Auditorium 7:00 p.m.

Questioning Faith, a Cinemax feature documentary film by award-winning director Macky Alston, will be presented in the Mackay Auditorium. Alston will be on campus for the screening and will be introduced by Professor Patrick Miller. In this film, Alston turns his camera on religion in the new millennium, pursuing Buddhists, born-again Christians, atheists, and Orthodox Jews to discover how people find meaning in life when nothing makes sense.

In Questioning Faith, Alston delves into the issue of faith struggle, interviewing those who have suffered family-member suicides and murders, cancer and AIDS patients, a Dachau survivor, and others wrestling with faith in the face of tragedy and hardship. This is an engaging film that prepares people for crises in their lives, provides a tool for conversation around crisis and faith in a nonpartial, nonproselytizing forum, and inspires a sense of respect for people with a range of religious views as they try to understand their lives.

The Seminary community is invited to attend this screening, which is being presented at no charge.

◆ Thursday, March 4 to Saturday, Saturday March 6
Continuing Education Event—Twelfth Women in Church and Ministry Conference—"Inheriting the Promise: And Then... Sin, Creativity, and the Christian Life"
Erdman Hall
Thursday (4:00 p.m.) to Saturday (12:00 p.m.)
Historic and popular traditions about Adam and Eve often force women in Christian ministry to confront implicit assumptions about sin as they minister. This year's Women in Church and Ministry Conference explores contemporary understandings of sin, alongside creativity and discipleship in the Christian life. How are we called into Christian service even as we have inherited a traditional doctrine of total depravity? How does "sin" affect creative living in Christian communities? What gifts does discipleship offer a life creatively lived? Conference participants will share in times of worship, plenary presentations, and small-group discussions in which Christian community envisions new ways of serving faithfully, while living creatively.

Serene Jones, associate professor of theology at Yale University Divinity School and an ordained minister in both the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) and the United Church of Christ; Cynthia Rigby, the W.C. Brown Associate Professor of Theology at Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary; and Lisa Maguire Hess, an ordained Presbyterian minister and the program director for pastoral and congregational renewal at the Center of Continuing Education at PTS, will lead this event.

PTS students, staff, and faculty, and their spouses are invited to attend Continuing Education events, but advanced registration is required. Most events are free of charge, but some restrictions do apply. Please contact Continuing Education for more information.

◆ Friday, March 5
A Concert of Organ Music from North Germany and the Netherlands
Miller Chapel 8:00 p.m.
The Joe R. Engle Organ of Miller Chapel will play just about any repertoire, yet it has a certain bent toward the compositions of North Germany and The Netherlands. Peter Westerbrink will demonstrate this particular facet of the organ by featuring the music of Buxtehude, Bach, and Bolt, among others. The audience will also be invited to sing a chorale with the organ.

Westerbrink is organist for the city of Groningen and the Reformed Church of Noordbroek in The Netherlands. In addition to being acknowledged as one of the preeminent Dutch organists, he is also known in his homeland as a producer of organ and church music programs for Dutch public radio.

The concert is free of charge. Come to sing and enjoy! For more information, contact the Chapel Office at the number below.

Retreat on Marriage and Ministry for Couples and Singles
Main Lounge 8:45 a.m.–1:15 p.m.
Couples (or halves of couples) and single students who may not be "coupled" currently but want to be more prepared for the possible challenges and joys of marriage/partnership and ministry are invited to attend this retreat on marriage and ministry.

Leaders Kim Guiser and Asha George-Guiser, who are a clergy couple, will talk about "Ten Learnings from Twenty Years of Marriage and Ministry." Kim is a parish pastor and Asha is a licensed marriage and family therapist who served as assistant to the bishop of the Southeastern Pennsylvania Lutheran Synod and was responsible for the formation and placement of seminarians. They are both dynamic speakers and will candidly share the ten most important learnings of their twenty years together balancing marriage, ministry,

◆ Housing and Auxiliary Services Announcements

Summer Housing 2004 and Dormitory Housing Information

Dormitory housing for this summer (May 17 to September 7, 2004) will be very limited for students not attending classes. Hodge Hall will remain open for the entire summer. Alexander and Brown Halls will close on May 17 and will reopen on July 12 for the start of summer language and remain open for the rest of the summer. We will be reserving rooms for summer school and summer language, leaving a very limited number of rooms available for those who are not attending classes and who wish to remain on campus during the summer.

Students not eligible for summer housing include graduating students and/or those who have completed full-time course work and those not working on campus.

Students eligible for summer housing include Ph.D. students (first through fourth year), students working on field education or CPE in the area, and those claiming PTS as their only residence.

If you are a returning student and will be enrolled in summer school or summer language, you will only be guaranteed a room for the period that the course is in session.

Apartment Sublet Information

Those students who are interested in subletting their apartments to another student(s) during the summer months are asked to contact the Office of

◆ Babysitters Needed for Saturday, March 6

Adult and teen babysitters are needed from 8:15 a.m. to 1:45 p.m. on March 6 during the marriage retreat. The pay is great. The spiritual benefits of being with the children of fellow seminarians? Priceless! Please email or contact Teresa Heyer at 497-7890 (teresa.heyer@ptsem.edu) if you can help.

◆ The Testament Submissions

The Testament is a publication for creative expression by the PTS community. We aspire to be a forum for diverse experiences and perspectives. The Testament welcomes submissions of poetry, prose, short essays, photos, and artwork. Please also consider submitting sermons for a special edition of The Testament featuring sermons. The theme for the spring semester is "the embodied, the shadow, the wilderness," and the deadline is Wednesday, March 31. Send submissions or questions to testament@ptsem.edu.

◆ Net Work Prayer Group

This semester we have been praying through the PTS directory. It has been a powerful blessing for us to lift up the PTS community to the Lord. It has been an opportunity for us to learn a little bit more about prayer, ourselves, and what it means to support the body of Christ. It is a wonderful feeling to pray for someone from the directory and then see them in person. This month we will be praying specifically for people and families in the directory beginning with Campbell and Conrad Hackett and ending with Matthew and Kelly Lundberg. The PTS community is invited to join us in prayer on Tuesday, March 2 at 8:00 p.m. in the Witherspoon Lounge or send prayer requests to craig.clarkson@ptsem.edu.

◆ Housing and Auxiliary Services Announcements

Summer Housing 2004 and Dormitory Housing Information

Dormitory housing for this summer (May 17 to September 7, 2004) will be very limited for students not attending classes. Hodge Hall will remain open for the entire summer. Alexander and Brown Halls will close on May 17 and will reopen on July 12 for the start of summer language and remain open for the rest of the summer. We will be reserving rooms for summer school and summer language, leaving a very limited number of rooms available for those who are not attending classes and who wish to remain on campus during the summer.

Students eligible for summer housing include Ph.D. students (first through fourth year), students working on field education or CPE in the area, and those claiming PTS as their only residence.

If you are a returning student and will be enrolled in summer school or summer language, you will only be guaranteed a room for the period that the course is in session.

Apartment Sublet Information

Those students who are interested in subletting their apartments to another student(s) during the summer months are asked to contact the Office of Housing and Auxiliary Services for information and guidelines concerning subletting. All sublets must be approved by the Office of Housing and Auxiliary Services. Lists of students who want to sublet apartments and those who are interested in subleasing an apartment to another student will be posted in the Office of Housing and Auxiliary Services.

2004–2005 Academic Year Housing Applications

Housing applications for the 2004–2005 academic year have been sent to all residents. Please complete and return the form to the Office of Housing and Auxiliary Services no later than Friday, March 26.

Major Address by Prime Minister of The Netherlands on Transatlantic Relations

Princeton University 4:00 p.m.
Woodrow Wilson School, Bowl 016

Prime Minister Jan Peter Balkenende, prime minister of The Netherlands, will give a major address on transatlantic relations at Princeton University's Woodrow Wilson School. Prime Minister Balkenende will become the president of the European Union on July 1 and in this role, as well as his role as head of state in The Netherlands, he will speak about what he believes to be the vital need for cooperation between the EU and the United States.

The prime minister is in Princeton to receive the Abraham Kuyper Prize for Excellence in Reformed Theology and Public Life at PTS on Monday evening (see event below). He will also meet with President Bush and U.N. Secretary General Kofi Annan during his visit to the United States.

Prime Minister Balkenende is a member of the Christian Democratic Party and is a noted jurist and an economic moralist. In his political career, he has addressed issues including the place of Jewish-Christian values in the European community, the status of illegal immigrants in The Netherlands, the problem of school violence, and the modernization of the Dutch healthcare system.

Abraham Kuyper Prize for Excellence in Reformed Theology and Public Life and the Abraham Kuyper Lecture—"Solid Values for a Better Future"

Miller Chapel 7:30 p.m.

PTS is honored to present the 2004 Abraham Kuyper Prize for Excellence in Reformed Theology and Public Life to Prime Minister Jan Peter Balkenende of The Netherlands.

After a career at the Scientific Institute of the Christian Democratic Appeal (CDA), Balkenende became a member of Parliament in the House of Representatives of the States General in 1998. In 2001 he was chosen leader of the CDA in the House of Representatives. On July 22, 2002, he took office as Prime Minister and Minister of General Affairs. On May 27, 2003, Balkenende returned to serve in the same capacities in the second government to bear his name. He plays an active part in international affairs.

Balkenende studied history and Dutch law and received his Ph.D. in law (1992) at the Free University of Amsterdam. From 1993 to 2002 he was a part-time professor of Christian social thought on society and economics at the Free University. His publications include Nieuwe Tweedeling is Breder dan Christelijk of Niet-Christelijk (The New Dichotomy Is Broader than Christian or Non-Christian), Nederlands Dagblad, 13 Juni 2001; and Tussen Vrije Hand en Morele Sentimenten: Enkele Opmerkingen over Chirstelijk-Sociaal Denken en de Terugkeer van de Ethiek in de Ecomonie (Between the Free Hand and Moral Sentiments: Some Observations on Christian Social Thinking and the Return of Ethics in the Economy).

◆ Wholistic Health Fair

1 Corinthians 6:19–20
"Do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, which you have from God, and that you are not your own? For you were bought with a price; therefore glorify God in your body."

The Wholistic Health Fair will be held on Wednesday, April 14 from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. on the Quad and in the Mackay Auditorium. The PTS community is invited to a day of fun to gather information to promote the care of your whole body.

More than 40 exhibits from PTS and surrounding community resources will be displayed; the exhibits will highlight various aspects of caring for the body, mind, and spirit. An outdoor labyrinth prayer walk, soothing music, healthy snacks, counseling resources, massage, Reiki, safety and health information, and blood pressure screenings are just some of the exhibits that will be available for your exploration. A Noontime Forum on "Stress-Relieving Techniques for Pastors" will be held in the Main Lounge. Abigail Rian Evans, PTS's Charlotte W. Newcombe Professor of Practical Theology and academic coordinator of field education, will hold a

◆ Symposium on Reinhold Niebuhr and Public Theology

Robin Lovin, the Carey Maguire University Professor of Ethics at Southern Methodist University, and Stanley Hauerwas, the Gilbert T. Rowe Professor of Theological Ethics at Duke Divinity School, will present a symposium on Reinhold Niebuhr and public theology at 4:30 p.m. on Thursday, March 25 in McCosh 10 on the Princeton University campus.

Niebuhr was one of the most influential American Christian theologians of the 20th century and was well-known for his ability to bring theological wisdom to bear on important issues of the day. He is the author of many classics in the field, including Moral Man and Immoral Society, The Children of Light and the Children of Darkness, and Discerning the Signs of Our Times. This symposium brings together two of the most prominent contemporary theological ethicists to discuss Niebuhr's vision of public theology, its efficacy in his time, and its implications for today.

The symposium is the second event in a three-year series offered by the Princeton University Center for the Study of Religion featuring speakers who combine strong interests in public affairs with rich understanding of theology, theological ethics, philosophy of religion, and religious history. The series is sponsored by the Reynolds Trust.

Sharing Our Stories—Conversations and Brunch for PTS Spouses

Springdale, Home of Barbara Gillespie, 86 Mercer Street 10:00 a.m.–12:00 p.m.

PTS spouses and the Presbytery of New Brunswick invite student spouses to an informal brunch and discussion about life as a clergy spouse. Speakers include, Barbara Gillespie, who will bring a unique perspective with her experiences as a pastor's wife, a professor's wife, and a seminary president's wife. She is also a mother and a grandmother. Nancy Schongalla-Bowman, director of student counseling, is a 1979 alumnus of PTS, ordained in the United Church of Christ, and is married to a parish priest. She served a congregation as a pastor for four years before doing hospital, hospice, and nursing home ministries. She has grown stepsons, an 11-year-old son, a granddaughter, and five goddaughters. Joyce Emery is an ordained Presbyterian pastor currently serving as executive presbyter in the New Brunswick Presbytery. She is married to an ordained Presbyterian pastor and is the mother of four children.

The brunch promises to be a great event of honesty, humor, and hope! Please R.S.V.P. to Kellie Clarkson or Karen Montovino at the telephone numbers listed below.

Upcoming ❖ Events

◆ Thursday, April 1 and Friday, April 2
Lecture Series—"Renewal in the Mainline"

The Theological Students' Fellowship (TSF) is sponsoring a two-day lecture series on Thursday, April 1 and Friday, April 2 that includes two lunchtime forums and a lecture. The series theme, on the topic of renewal in the mainline church, was chosen in response to concern expressed by Princeton Seminary students about the radical decline taking place within the mainline church.

A lunchtime forum "Are Mainline Churches Destined to Be on the Sideline?" given by George Gallup, chairman of the George H. Gallup International Institute based in Princeton, will kick-off the two-day lecture series on Thursday, April 1 at 12:30 p.m. in the Main Lounge. A lecture given by Dr. Roberta Hestenes, minister-at-large, World Vision International and former pastor of Solana Beach Presbyterian Church in Solana Beach, California, will follow at 6:30 p.m. in Stuart 6. The lecture is titled "Why Mainline? Why Bother?"

On Friday, April 2, the Reverend Bob Davis; executive director of the Presbyterian Forum, will speak at a lunchtime forum at 12:30 p.m. in the Main Lounge on the topic of "Young Pastors in a Changing Denomination: Renewal Goes Practical."

For more information, contact Gregory Green or Onorio Chaparro at the telephone numbers listed below.

◆ Friday, April 2 and Saturday, April 3
Women in Pastoral Ministry Conference—"Ain't I a Woman"

The Association of Black Seminarians presents its second Women in Pastoral Ministry Conference—"Ain't I a Woman"—on Friday, April 2 and Saturday, April 3.

The conference opens with a worship service at 6:30 p.m. in Miller Chapel that pays tribute to Sojourner Truth (1797–1883), a former slave who in 1843 was inspired by a spiritual revelation that changed her life.

Friday at 7:00 p.m. there will be a workshop titled "Addressing the Psycho-Spiritual Needs of African American and Latina Women" in the Gambrell Room led by the Reverend Dr. Melinda Contreras-Byrd, a psychologist and director of The Generations Center in Cherry Hill, New Jersey. A reception will follow the workshop at 8:00 p.m.

Saturday's schedule includes a lecture, a panel discussion, and a closing worship service. The lecture will take place at 10:30 a.m. in the Gambrell Room, and features Dr. Emilie Townes, the Carolyn Williams Beaird Professor of Christian Ethics at Union Theological Seminary in New York City, addressing the topic of "Mounting the High Side of Misery." A panel discussion at 1:30 p.m. will be led by Contreras-Byrd and Townes in the Gambrell Room. The conference will conclude with a worship service with motivational speaker the Reverend Kathleen Smallwood-Johnson, Esquire, in Miller Chapel at 3:00 p.m.

The conference will provide an opportunity for attendees to hear premier scholars, theologians, and ministers teach and preach from an African American and womanist perspective. These presenters represent those whose ministries reflect and use the womanist perspective in academia, the pulpit, and community activism.

The conference is free of charge. For more information and to preregister, contact Charlotte Mallory at the telephone number or Kim Mayner at the email address listed below.

◆ Friday, April 2 and Saturday, April 3
Church Drama Production "Prophet and Carpenter" by Olov Hartman

Mackay Auditorium 8:00 p.m.

PTS's Department of Speech Communication in Ministry presents Olov Hartman's drama Prophet and Carpenter. The play will be staged by Robert Lanchester, assistant in speech, who has cast Seminary students in the roles. It was first produced in 1954 by the playwright, Olov Hartman, a Swedish Lutheran priest. The text for this production was translated by Brita Stendhal.

A church drama, the play builds on the biblical book of Jonah. The scene ranges from a storm-tossed ship to the belly of a whale and on to Nineveh, fabled city of sinners. In the belly of the whale (the Kingdom of Death), Jonah encounters the dead souls of earlier kings and prophets, such as David and Saul, and later, standing outside Nineveh, anticipating its doom, he strikes up an acquaintance with a carpenter, who eventually goes down into the suffering city. Jonah's experience parallels the death and resurrection of a later, greater prophet and carpenter; but Jonah, ornery and disgruntled, doggedly clings to his belief in a God of justice, not mercy: the prophet's outrage at God's apparently arbitrary flexibility fuels the entire play.

The production is free of charge, but seating is limited. For more information, contact Lois Haydu at the telephone number listed below.

◆ Sunday, March 21
Lecture on Islam and the West
Frist Campus Room 302 4:00 p.m.
Princeton University

The PTS community is invited to attend a lecture at Princeton University on the topic of "From Clash of Civilizations to a Common Vision: Islam and the West." Dr. Robert D. Crane, lecturer, is chairman of the Center for Understanding Islam, in Bernardsville, New Jersey, where he leads an effort of Muslim Americans to present a message of enlightened Islam. Formerly, he served as deputy director for planning in the National Security Council during the Nixon administration and then as U.S. ambassador to the United Arab Emirates during the Reagan administration. He has since been an Islamic scholar and activist. He has authored or coauthored numerous books and professional articles on long-range global forecasting, comparative legal systems and the role of religion in society. He received his J.D. from Harvard Law School.

The program is free of charge; all are welcome. It is sponsored by The Princeton Middle East Society, the International Center of Princeton University, the Princeton University Office of Religious Life and the Islamic Society of Central Jersey. For more information, call 921-8085.

All events are free and open to the public.

◆ Symposium on Reinhold Niebuhr and Public Theology
Robin Lovin, the Carey Maguire University Professor of Ethics at Southern Methodist University, and Stanley Hauerwas, the Gilbert T. Rowe Professor of Theological Ethics at Duke Divinity School, will present a symposium on Reinhold Niebuhr and public theology at 4:30 p.m. on Thursday, March 25 in McCosh 10 on the Princeton University campus.

Niebuhr was one of the most influential American Christian theologians of the 20th century and was well-known for his ability to bring theological wisdom to bear on important issues of the day. He is the author of many classics in the field, including Moral Man and Immoral Society, The Children of Light and the Children of Darkness, and Discerning the Signs of Our Times. This symposium brings together two of the most prominent contemporary theological ethicists to discuss Niebuhr's vision of public theology, its efficacy in his time, and its implications for today.

The symposium is the second event in a three-year series offered by the Princeton University Center for the Study of Religion featuring speakers who combine strong interests in public affairs with rich understanding of theology, theological ethics, philosophy of religion, and religious history. The series is sponsored by the Reynolds Trust.

◆ Saturday, March 27
Organ Concert with Joan Lippincott
Princeton University Chapel 8:00 p.m.
Princeton University invites the PTS community to attend an organ concert given by organ virtuoso Joan Lippincott with the Princeton University Chapel Camerata. ◆ Friday, April 2 and Saturday, April 3
"Prophet and Carpenter" Church Drama by Olov Hartman
Mackay Auditorium 8:00 p.m.

PTS's Department of Speech Communication in Ministry presents Olov Hartman's drama Prophet and Carpenter. It was first produced in 1954 by the playwright, Olov Hartman, a Swedish Lutheran priest. The text for this production was translated by Brita Stendhal.

A church drama, the play builds on the biblical book of Jonah. The scene ranges from a storm-tossed ship to the belly of a whale and on to Nineveh, fabled city of sinners. In the belly of the whale (the Kingdom of Death), Jonah encounters the dead souls of earlier kings and prophets, such as David and Saul, and later, standing outside Nineveh, anticipating its doom, he strikes up an acquaintance with a carpenter, who eventually goes down into the suffering city. Jonah's experience parallels the death and resurrection of a later, greater prophet and carpenter; but Jonah, ornery and disgruntled, doggedly clings to his belief in a God of justice, not mercy: the prophet's outrage at God's apparently arbitrary flexibility fuels the entire play.

The play will be staged by Robert Lanchester, assistant in speech, who has cast Seminary students in the roles.

The production is free of charge, but seating is limited. For more information, contact Lois Haydu at the telephone number listed below.

Main Lounge 12:30 p.m.
Lecture, Thursday, April 1
Stuart 6 6:30 p.m.
Lunchtime Forum, Friday, April 2
Main Lounge 12:30 p.m.

The Theological Students' Fellowship (TSF) is sponsoring a two-day lecture series on Thursday, April 1 and Friday, April 2 that includes two lunchtime forums and a lecture. The series theme, on the topic of renewal in the mainline church, was chosen in response to concern expressed by Princeton Seminary students about the radical decline taking place within the mainline church.

A lunchtime forum "Are Mainline Churches Destined to Be on the Sideline?" given by George Gallup, chairman of the George H. Gallup International Institute based in Princeton, will kick-off the two-day lecture series on Thursday, April 1. A lecture given by Dr. Roberta Hestenes, minister-at-large, World Vision International, and former pastor of Solana Beach Presbyterian Church in Solana Beach, California, will follow at 6:30 p.m. The lecture is titled "Why Mainline? Why Bother?"

On Friday, April 2, the Reverend Bob Davis, executive director of the Presbyterian Forum, will speak at a lunchtime forum on the topic of "Young Pastors in a Changing Denomination: Renewal Goes Practical."

For more information, contact Gregory Green or Onorio Chaparro at the telephone numbers listed below.

The Association of Black Seminarians presents its second Women in Pastoral Ministry Conference—"Ain't I a Woman"—on Friday, April 2 and Saturday, April 3.

The conference opens with a worship service at in Miller Chapel that pays tribute to Sojourner Truth (1797–1883), a former slave who in 1843 was inspired by a spiritual revelation that changed her life.

On Friday there will be a workshop titled "Addressing the Psycho-Spiritual Needs of African American and Latina Women" led by the Reverend Dr. Melinda Contreras-Byrd, a psychologist and director of The Generations Center in Cherry Hill, New Jersey. A reception will follow the workshop at 8:00 p.m.

Saturday's schedule includes a lecture, a panel discussion, and a closing worship service. The lecture will features Dr. Emilie Townes, the Carolyn Williams Beaird Professor of Christian Ethics at Union Theological Seminary in New York City, addressing the topic "Mounting the High Side of Misery." A panel discussion will be led by Contreras-Byrd and Townes in the Gambrell Room. The conference will conclude with a worship service with motivational speaker the Reverend Kathleen Smallwood-Johnson, Esquire, in Miller Chapel.

The conference will provide an opportunity for attendees to hear premier scholars, theologians, and ministers teach and preach from an African American and womanist perspective. These presenters represent those whose ministries reflect and use the womanist perspective in academia, the pulpit, and community activism.

The conference is free of charge. For more information and to preregister, contact Charlotte Mallory at the telephone number below or Kim Mayner at the email address listed below.

A Spring Awakening for Women through African Music and Dance

Gambrell Room 10:30 a.m.–12:15 p.m.

All women connected with Princeton Theological Seminary are invited to a special gathering to enjoy each other's company while learning some simple West African circle dances. Students, faculty, staff, administrators, alumnae, daughters, and friends are welcome to share in this unique experience of fun and community building.

The leader for this gathering is Laura Goldstein of Bethlehem, Pennsylvania, who is a mother of two and a part-time freelance writer. Her passion for West African dance was cultivated four years ago at the Djoniba Drum and Dance studio in New York City. She introduces African dance to young teenage girls and women's groups as a way to build self-esteem and discuss important coming-of-age topics such as sexuality, and also to increase appreciation for different cultures, viewpoints, and ways of life.

In West Africa, as in many other parts of the world, dance is a way of life, which translates every day experiences into movement. We invite you to join Laura in a unique experience as a community of women, through learning of dances from the Ivory Coast. The steps are simple to follow, and they translate what it's like to prepare a field for growth and harvest. You'll have a chance to acknowledge things we take for granted, such as our earth, the sun, and our own bodies.

This free event is cosponsored by The Women's Center and Wholistic Health Initiative. No coordination or experience required! For more information, contact Teresa Heyer in the Chapel Office.

◆ "Can We End Poverty As We Know It?"—A Photography Exhibit through Friday, April 9

The Crisis Ministry of Princeton and Trenton invites the PTS community to experience their work through a photography exhibit currently displayed at Princeton University's Woodrow Wilson Bernstein Gallery.

This exhibit takes you through the lives of the Crisis Ministry's low-income neighbors, asking the question, "Can we end poverty as we know it?"

Photographers Chrissie Knight (PTS Class of 1999) and Nancy Hodges volunteered their time capturing the struggle of those whose lives are affected by current policies, including the current housing crisis in Mercer County.

During this Lenten season, the Crisis Ministry encourages everyone to take the time to reflect upon what his or her role is with the poor—both as an individual Christian, and as a member of the faith community. For more information, contact Marcia MacKillop at 396-9355, extension 12.

Community Forum—"After the Events of 9/11, What Personal Sacrifices Are We Willing to Make to Keep Us Safe?"

The Conference Center at 8:30–11:30 a.m.
Mercer, Mercer County Community College, 1200 Old Trenton Road, West Windsor, New Jersey

This is the third in a series of community forums sponsored by Mercer County Community College and The Times of Trenton to promote community discussion of vital issues affecting the people of New Jersey, and presenting experts on all sides of the debate to explain and explore complex issues.

September 11, 2001, and the events that have followed have caused us to wonder about the personal sacrifices to be made in order to keep America "safe and free." Is our Democracy strengthened or weakened by the need for more intrusive surveillance?

Listen to the experts debate the issue from their unique perspectives. They will place today's situation in a historical context, look at how different groups within society are affected in very different ways, and talk about their own experiences. There will be balanced and rational discussion, where the panel members will inform the audience, state their positions, respectfully question others' arguments and take questions from the audience.

Nancy J. Duff, PTS's associate professor of theological ethics, will moderate this event. Hui Chen, an M.Div. middler and former federal prosecutor and corporate attorney, will particpate on the panel. Other panel members include: Kathy Flicker, assistant attorney general-in-charge of the newly created New Jersey Office of Counter-Terrorism; Imam Hamad Ahmad Chebli, spiritual leader of The Islamic Society of Central Jersey; Harold Eikhoff, distinguished professor of humanities at The College of New Jersey; Deborah Jacobs, executive director of the American Civil Liberties Union of New Jersey; and William J. Atkinson, special agent with the FBI assigned to the Newark, New Jersey, field office.

There is a registration fee of $35 ($25 for seniors and students or 10 percent discount for groups of three or more participants registering together). For further information, contact Lorna Strang at 586-4800, extension 3856 or email strangl@mccc.edu. To register by telephone, call 586-9446.

◆ Housing and Auxiliary Services Announcements

Dormitory, Roberts and Tennent Hall Residents

If you find yourself locked out of your room or apartment during normal work hours, please try to locate the building custodian first. Do not call security unless the custodian cannot be located. This saves time and is often faster as security may be at another part of the campus unable to immediately come to your assistance.

Spring Blood Drive

PTS's annual spring blood drive will be held on Monday, April 19 in the Main Lounge from 9:00 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Appointments can be made through the Office of Housing and Auxiliary Services.

Room Draw

Room draw will be held on Monday, April 26 at 2:00 p.m. in Stuart 1 for those students who wish to change dormitory rooms for the fall semester. A list of available rooms will be posted in the Office of Housing and Auxiliary Services and in each dormitory on Thursday, April 23.

Summer Apartment Sublets

Students who wish to sublet their apartments for the summer are asked to stop by the Office of Housing and Auxiliary Services for information about this procedure. A sign-up sheet will be posted for those students who want to sublet into and out of apartments. All sublets must be approved by the Office of Housing and Auxiliary Services.

Relocation Information

For those of you who are graduating and are in need of moving information, please stop by the Office of Housing and Auxiliary Services. We have information that may help with your moving process. The Clergy Relocation Center has sent us information to be given to graduates that may have inquiries about moving.

Dormitory Residents—Early Vacating

Students vacating their rooms earlier than Monday, May 17 are asked to notify the Office of Housing and Auxiliary Services so that these rooms may be used for graduation guests.

Vacating Procedures for Dormitory Rooms

Turn your keys in to the Office of Housing and Auxiliary Services even if you will be returning to the same room in the fall. Clean room thoroughly, emptying closets and drawers. You must be out of your room no later than 10:00 a.m. on Monday, May 17.

Roberts and Tennent Halls, Princeton, CRW, and Witherspoon Apartments

Turn keys in to the Office of Housing and Auxiliary Services. Lock apartment when you leave. Clean apartment thoroughly and remove all trash. Call PSE&G at 1-800-436-7734 for a final reading and billing, but do not have the power turned off.

If you are graduating, please be sure to leave a forwarding address with the Office of Housing and Auxiliary Services so that your security/damage deposit can be mailed to you. Please call the Office of Housing and Auxiliary Services with any questions concerning vacating.

Stuart Hall Locker Keys

All graduating students who have signed out a Stuart Hall locker key must return the keys to the Office of Housing and Auxiliary Services before Friday, May 14. There is a $10 fee for keys that are not returned.

◆ Friday, April 16
Community Forum—"After the Events of 9/11, What Personal Sacrifices Are We Willing to Make to Keep Us Safe?"
The Conference Center at Mercer, Mercer County Community College, 1200 Old Trenton Road, West Windsor, New Jersey 8:30–11:30 a.m.

This is the third in a series of community forums sponsored by Mercer County Community College and The Times of Trenton to promote community discussion of vital issues affecting the people of New Jersey, and presenting experts on all sides of the debate to explain and explore complex issues.

September 11, 2001, and the events that have followed have caused us to wonder about the personal sacrifices to be made in order to keep America "safe and free." Is our democracy strengthened or weakened by the need for more intrusive surveillance?

Listen to the experts debate the issue from their unique perspectives. They will place today's situation in a historical context, look at how different groups within society are affected in very different ways, and talk about their own experiences. There will be balanced and rational discussion, where the panel members will inform the audience, state their positions, respectfully question others' arguments, and take questions from the audience.

Nancy J. Duff, PTS's associate professor of theological ethics, will moderate this event. Hui Chen, an M.Div. middler and former federal prosecutor and corporate attorney, will participate on the panel. Other panel members include: Kathy Flicker, assistant attorney general-in-charge of the newly created New Jersey Office of Counter-Terrorism; Imam Hamad Ahmad Chebli, spiritual leader of The Islamic Society of Central Jersey; Harold Eikhoff, distinguished professor of humanities at The College of New Jersey; Deborah Jacobs, executive director of the American Civil Liberties Union of New Jersey; and William J. Atkinson, special agent with the FBI assigned to the Newark, New Jersey, field office.

There is a registration fee of $35 ($25 for seniors and students or 10 percent discount for groups of three or more participants registering together). For further information, contact Lorna Strang at 586-4800, extension 3856 or email strangl@mccc.edu. To register by telephone, call 586-9446.

Annual Alumni/ae Reunion

PTS alumni/ae from across the decades—from the '40s through the 2000s—will return to the campus for the 2004 Alumni/ae Reunion events on Thursday, May 20 and Friday, May 21. The gathering's theme is "Preaching in the 21st Century." The Rian Lectures at this year's reunion gathering will be given by the Reverend Earl F. Palmer, pastor of University Presbyterian Church in Seattle, Washington, a 1956 PTS alumnus, and a member of PTS's Board of Trustees. Dr. Thomas K. Tewell, pastor of the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church in New York City, will preach at a service of remembrance and a hymn sing/worship service. He is a graduate in the PTS Class of 1973 and is respected throughout the church as a preacher and a teacher. Dr. Ronald C. White Jr., professor of American intellectual and religious history at San Francisco Theological Seminary, will give a special lecture on Abraham Lincoln. A 1964 PTS alum, White recently published Lincoln's Greatest Speech: The Second Inaugural (Simon and Schuster, 2002), in which he argues that in that speech Lincoln grapples with the question of where God was in the midst of the Civil War.

Summer Apartment Sublets
Students who wish to sublet their apartments for the summer are asked to stop by the Office of Housing and Auxiliary Services for information about this procedure. A sign-up sheet will be posted for those students who want to sublet into and out of apartments. All sublets must be approved by the Office of Housing and Auxiliary Services.

Relocation Information
For those of you who are graduating and are in need of moving information, please stop by the Office of Housing and Auxiliary Services. We have information that may help with your moving process. The Clergy Relocation Center has sent us information to be given to graduates who may have inquiries about moving.

Dormitory Residents—Early Vacating
Students vacating their rooms earlier than Monday, May 17 are asked to notify the Office of Housing and Auxiliary Services so that these rooms may be used for graduation guests.

Vacating Procedures for Dormitory Rooms
Turn your keys in to the Office of Housing and Auxiliary Services even if you will be returning to the same room in the fall. Clean room thoroughly, emptying closets and drawers. You must be out of your room no later than 10:00 a.m. on Monday, May 17.

Roberts and Tennent Halls, Princeton, CRW, and Witherspoon Apartments
Turn keys in to the Office of Housing and Auxiliary Services. Lock apartment when you leave. Clean apartment thoroughly and remove all trash. Call PSE&G at 1-800-436-7734 for a final reading and billing, but do not have the power turned off.

If you are graduating, please be sure to leave a forwarding address with the Office of Housing and Auxiliary Services so that your security/damage deposit can be mailed to you. Please call the Office of Housing and Auxiliary Services with any questions concerning vacating.

Stuart Hall Locker Keys
All graduating students who have signed out a Stuart Hall locker key must return the keys to the Office of Housing and Auxiliary Services before Friday, May 14. There is a $10 fee for keys that are not returned.

Women and Religion in the African Diaspora Conference

Whig Hall, Senate Chamber, Princeton University

This conference is the culmination of three years of collaborative research undertaken by a diverse group of interdisciplinary scholars working on some aspect of gender and religion in various diasporic contexts in the Americas and the Caribbean. The project, funded by the Ford Foundation, aims to expand awareness of women's diverse ways of using religious beliefs and practices in African-derived or African-influenced traditions, along with their social, cultural, and political effects. Participants in the collaborative research group will present their work at the conference.

The keynote speaker is Brent Hayes Edwards, author of The Practice of Diaspora: Literature, Translation, and the Rise of Black Internationalism (Harvard University Press, 2003). Additional conference participants from the Princeton faculty include Valerie Smith, Noliwe Rooks, Eddie Glaude, Daphne Brooks, and Al Raboteau. Many more scholars from outside Princeton will also participate.

The conference is free and open to the public. Registration information and a full conference schedule are available at http://www.princeton.edu/%7Ecsrelig/WRAD/. For further information, contact the Center for the Study of Religion at 258-5545 (askline@princeton.edu) or email the project organizer, Marie Griffith, at griffith@princeton.edu.
